Introduction of handball highly successful across school with staff and pupils. Enhanced quality of teaching and learning through high quality external INSET provider. Subject leadership skills enhanced through training, networking, team-teaching with external provider. Improved pupil attitudes to PE, especially girls who are enjoying competing with boys in a gender-neutral sport (handball). “Handball is now my favourite sport, because any player can score a goal.” Kayla, Year 5. “We can play in mixed teams because the boys aren’t as rough as they are in football.” Great adherence to rules of games, overflowing into better quality playtimes. Enhanced inclusive curriculum provision which inspires and engages all pupils. High demand and attendance for after school sports clubs, including for targeted groups, such as girls, children who are overweight. 1.12.16 - EYFS physical literacy training highly successful. Trainee teacher in Yr 1 took part in training & cascaded in a storytelling PE session to Yr 1 teachers in the Spring term 2017. The physical challenge commensurate with Yr 1 in evidence. Generic physical literacy plan now in place for 5 book titles for future teaching.
